Lessons in Suffering

In suffering we are tempted to lose hope and faith in the Lord's love and in His desire for our eternal life with Him. But that same suffering can teach us, if we let it, to turn to God and place our hope and trust in Him.

Going to college? Know someone who is?

Do you know someone who is heading off to college this fall? Would you like to help them connect with people of faith when they get there? A new website of the Catholic Campus Ministers of Wisconsin can help. At www.goingtocollege.org students coming to campus can sign up to receive information about campus ministry at their prospective Wisconsin schools, as well as an invitation to get involved. The college years can be an important time for faith development. Don't miss out on the opportunities to meet great people and experience the prayer, service and social events that campus ministry offers. If you know someone going to college, make sure they visit www.goingtocollege.org.

Welcome Vacationers!

We would like to know where our visitors are from and where our parishioners have traveled this summer. Please check out the bulletin board in the Gathering Area and fill out a visitor or parishioner sheet and watch the bulletin board fill in!

The 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hospitality

Hospitality means receiving guests generously: my house is your house! Abraham and Sarah, the parents of us all, receive the Lord and get a wonderful response: "You will have now a son." Sarah laughs but then produces Isaac. Mary and Martha receive Jesus. Like Mary, we bask quietly in God's presence, and despite concern, should avoid over-fussiness in our worship. When we open ourselves to God, we share hospitality and the gift of God's Son. How do you receive the Lord?

We are very fortunate to be a part of Paul Todd's summer tour and look forward to a wonderful show.
